“ I wanted to add to my message. One of my memories of my brother was when he left to go into the Air Force. When he left that morning he would not let any of us take him to the train. He knew it would be too painful for all of us. When he left, we all sat and cried and cried all day. When I needed money to take saxophone lessons and go to girl scout camp, Ron would always be there to make sure they were paid for. He always took care of his family in many ways. He always made a trip home to see all of us every year. Ron had one daughter, Susan who he adored, along with his granddaughter, Rachel. He was able to spend some valuable time with them over the past few years. When Ron came to visit our Mother, Olive Wogan, it would be like the messiah came home. He would always take my sister Maureen, myself and my brother Alan either out to dinner or he would just sit around with us and make us laugh.

Ron loved his country and served it well. He will be sorely missed.

“ My Darling Brother, Ron, will be missed more than anyone will ever know. He was the rock in our family as we were growing up. As he grew older, we grew even closer and talked every Sunday. He loved his family, his sisters, Maureen and Sandy and brother Alan.

There is a whole in my heart and a part of me will now be missing.

Special love to him..

“ My brother Ronald was always a fun-loving caring person, dependable and always had a joke for all he came in contact with. When I always talked with him, he always reminded me so much of our Father, that it was like he was still with us. He always talked about Edith and how much he loved her and how great their life was together. I will always remember him and love him.

He would tell us jokes to pass the time as we worked.
He was kind and very professional.He would listen to our problems and give us advice.I guess you could say we were like his extended family.When he transfered to El Campo we missed him alot and kept in touch with him through Genive Morales.
My condolence to Edith and the family.Our prayers are with you!*
