

Ronnie Joe Schulze

January 9, 1948 - July 17, 2024

Ronnie Joe Schulze, known as Ron, passed away at the age of 76. Born on January 9, 1948, in Cuero, TX, Ron spent the majority of his life in the El Campo and Houston areas, leaving an indelible mark on everyone who knew him.

Ron was a dedicated father to his daughter, Morgan Whitney Bates. He was predeceased by his son, Troy Vincent Schulze, who passed away in 2001. Despite the hardships he faced, Ron's generous spirit and love for life never waned.

An entrepreneur at heart, Ron's career spanned various fields, showcasing his adaptability and business acumen. His ventures included working with pagers and early cell phones, running a photography business, selling cars, and managing a furniture store.

Ron had a deep love for movies and Motown music. He was an animal lover, devoted to his cat, Sugar Bear, and always ready to lend a helping hand to any creature or person in need. His generosity knew no bounds.

A man of faith, Ron found guidance in his religious beliefs, which shaped his actions and interactions with others. In his later years, he remained active by riding a bike or lifting weights at home, demonstrating his commitment to staying healthy for himself and his daughter.

Ron leaves behind no other children or living relatives, but his memory will be cherished by his daughter and all who knew him.

His funeral service will be held at Triska Funeral Home on Thursday, July 25, at 10:00 am. Burial will follow at Holy Cross Memorial Park. All who knew and loved Ron are invited to honor his memory.
