“ Yvonne so so very sad to hear this sad news about your mom. A great lady with a great daughter who stood right by her side through all her tough health issues. I know how proud your mom is for your gentle and caring for her for such a long time. God will bless you for all your loving care. You have been a very special daughter in being there for her every minute of your time. I know you will miss her...but remember all the memories of her and know that now she is not suffering any longer but in a far better place with no more hurting/illness, she is with Our Lord and will be watching you always. Again so sorry and asking God to be there for you through the tough days ahead...and that you were a daughter who gave all her best and time to be at her side through her tough illness. God's blessings on you always. love ya bunches (you were always on my mind)

Yvonne, Chris and Jody, I have many memories of your Mom. The best one is many years ago, we would all get together and formed a Coupon/Refunding club. We had so much fun and laughs doing what we all loved to do. I called her the "COUPON QUEEN" RIP my friend. Love, Elaine and Chuck Cook
