“ To Ali, Cyrus, Shan, and Sarah and family, thoughts and prayers are with you in your time of sorrow. My heart breaks, too - for Rosie was my dear friend, and the long conversations and laughter that we shared will remain in my heart forever.

Many years ago when my mother passed away, my nephew read a poem that I would like to share with you. In memory of Rosie, this is for her children and grandchildren and all her family whom she loved so much.

Angels Wings

You were a special gift sent by God above. You taught us all of faith and hope and how to give our love.

You loved us all with all your heart. This is the longest we'll ever be apart.

To have had a Mother/Grandma who loved so much, was to feel God's love through your touch.

Your faith through the years has been a blessing to me. It has opened my eyes so that I could see.

You have always been an inspiration to me. Sadly the day has come that God has set you free.

The Lord has come to take you home, Forever in heaven where you will happily roam.

Whatever you do, whatever heaven brings, please come back to me flying with Angels Wings.

I pray that time is kind to your heart and brings you sweet memories in place of sadness,

With much love,

The Schaffners,

Jane and Jim, David, Erin, and Kiriah, and Adam and Alexa

*It's so hard not to wish
For just one more day,
To say the words
That did not get said,
To feel her again,
To kiss and hold hands.*

*Ah, Rosie, outside, plenty we saw,
Your LOVE, your JOY
And so much, the PRIDE,
For each of them.
We too saw your GOODNESS,
As you've passed it to them.
A legacy honored,
And thankfully so.*

Our condolences, Linda and Jim
