I met both of your parents at the Senior Citizens Luncheon a few years ago and I thoroughly enjoyed the visit.. Your Mother was so sweet and pretty and your Father was so funny. They were so proud of you We will say a rosary for you and them tonight.

“ What sad news to hear about a most beautiful woman inside and out. She was a woman of sharing so much kindness and always a open heart to help others when they were in a time of need. Rosemary will be missed by so so many folks. We ask God to now wrap his arms around all her family who will need support thru the days ahead as they will miss this most beautiful lady in their lives. Farewell to a beautiful friend. .who we loved so much and will continue to be in our hearts and prayers ...Butch and Bernadette
