Tribute Wall

“ In late 1948, my parents chose their friends, Rosie and Alfonse, to be my baptismal godparents when they all lived in Bay City at that time. As I read the many tributes to Rosie and her life well-lived, I feel a sense of honor that such a gracious, kind, and loving soul was there to help me begin life's journey. To her family, please embrace your cherished memories of her and her values that will guide your lives in the days to come. Heaven has surely made room for another faithful and deserving member of God's chosen ones. With sincerest sympathy, “ Leon ad I were saddened to learn of Rosie's death. A BIG hole has been created in the El Campo community. It is a hole that only Rosie could fill. Her huge smile, her energy, and wit always made the 'party' come to life. Whether she was working at Jack's, attending church service, or just shopping in town, there was always a smile waiting for you when she noticed your presence. We will miss that.

May God Bless you all and may all the lovely memories you have of this wonderful lady make you smile each morning, especially on the tough days.

With love,

“ I remember Mrs. Rosie, on the bus to Coushatta, her son would lovingly drop her off and pick her up on our return. She loved life and was always smiling. May she rest in peace and may the perpetual light shine upon her. Augie & Terri Beltran

“ Rosie was the cutest little thing always chopping in her flower beds all the time and a water hose going. She was never at a loss for words, always had a smile and kind words for all. She was so good to Jay my son when they both lived at ElCampo Apts. He loved when she checked on him every day and always took him goodies. She was a friend to everyone she met. She loved everyone and in turn they loved her back. I loved her and so blessed she was my friend. Heaven was more radiant when Rosie arrived and got things going her way. Her family was blessed to have had such a role model to follow and keep her memory alive with so many Rosie stories. She lived her life well and was so loved. We will be together soon.

Love her and her family. Toodie
