“ I met Ruby in high school and we became fast friends. Although I only knew her for a short time I felt as if I knew her all my life. We double-dated and would go to the Rice Drive-in movie theater on the night it was called “Dollar A Carload and we would have four couples in the car and two guys in the trunk!”!!
Ruby and I would skip afternoon classes but then I got caught when my Mother called the school asking to speak with me but I was not in classes that afternoon. My mother wanted to know where the scissors were!!!. I was called into the principals office the next morning!! When I graduated, I moved to Phoenix ,Arizona and got married. We kept up our friendship but it was long distance and we were both busy having our baby boys but she beat me. She had four boys and I had three boys.

*My sincere condolences to all of Rub's family.

“ Mrs. Zbranek was my 2nd mom. I could never count the hours spent around her home nor the wonderful influence you she on me. I stopped by a few years ago with my grown daughters and as we left they all remarked how amazing she was with her genuine and caring nature.
