“ Our sincerest condolences to your family. Rudy made one of the best contributions you can in life.....he was a good friend to all. My father, "Sonny" told me that he lost one of his best friends and I knew immediately he was speaking of Rudy. Thanks for everything through the years and know that you are in our thoughts during this time.

“ I was very close to Papa Rudy. He taught me a lot about the country life, and little things that I will never forget. He taught me how to drive a riding lawn mower, how to bottle feed a baby calf and pick veggies from his garden. I remember when they had cows in the pasture behind their house, he would ask me to go fill up the water trough. I was scared to death of the pasture for some reason, but I always did it just for him so I wouldn't disappoint him. When my parents divorced, we lived with them for a while, and before school, when I was young, my mom would always tie my shoes for me. One day, he told me "Why don't you do that yourself?" and I said, "well, grandma helps you put on your belt" and he said "Well, if you tie your own shoes, I'll put on my own belt." He had such a sense of humor. He lit up when the grandkids came to visit. I'll never forget when I'd walk in their house he'd say "Hey Emmy!" This is not the end, he will forever be in my heart. I love you Papa! Watch over Grandma Doris.
