“ Whenever Sara was in my salon, it was like my best friend came to visit. I enjoyed her stories, her smiles and all we shared over the many years. She was a loving mother to her family and always shared their life stories with me. I know the Gates of Heaven were opened wide to welcome her in to receive her rewards of a life well-lived. I am so blessed to have had Sara as my friend for so many years. She was loved by so many and certainly by me. Her Heavenly rest was well deserved to be cherished by her and her family.
