“ Patti, Judy and Family - We are sorry to learn of Sheri's passing. Time does help ease the sorrow of losing a loved one. Cherish the wonderful memories that you each shared with her. Memories are a gift from God that allows us to pick roses when snow is on the ground. We love you.

“ Sheri is now with Almighty God. My prayers for the family are that you will be comforted by God throughout your grief. I became acquainted with Sheri and her children through "Pappy", and very quickly became aware of the strength within this family. May this same strength continue to grow and be a catalyst for the spreading of God's love.
