“ Benny and Cheyanne, we are all so very sorry for your loss. Sherry was always such a great neighbor and friend. I will miss her homemade Christmas candy and all of her help when one of us was sick. She had a nurturing way about her. May she now rest in peace, no pain, all 100% good with God.

Love,
Sherry & Scooter

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers for the family. Had the pleasure of Sherry working for me for several years at Home Health Advantage. She was always such a hard worker. A joy to have around. RIP Sherry!

“ Oh Sherry. You and I had a lot of fun at WCYF and at our FFA events. I have missed you since I moved, but remember you gave me the ok to move.. You were so proud of Cheyanne and I'm glad we got to watch her be so awesome together. I will always think of you when I make tea, or a patty melt or when I drink a Black Iguana.

Thank you for our friendship. Our fun times and conversations will never be forgotten.
