

Shirely Jean Brady Nordeen

January 2, 1935 - June 17, 2025

Shirley Jean Nordeen of El Campo died peacefully on June 17, 2025, at her home surrounded by her family. She was born January 2, 1935 in Hull-Daisetta, TX to Clevy James and Lena Mae Wells Brady. She married Raymond Nordeen, Jr. on February 25, 1956 in El Campo and they were married for 56 years.

Shirley taught Kindergarten at the First Baptist Church in El Campo. After raising her daughters, she worked at Merle Norman for over 20 years. Shirley was an avid reader and loved going to the library. She enjoyed a good Bridge game with her long-time friends. She loved the theater and enjoyed many trips with her best friend, Gloria Petersen. Her summers were spent fishing, skiing, and floating in her water chair at the family bay house in Port Alto. Her favorite times were the ones spent with family and friends.

Shirley is survived by her daughters Dawn Weatherford, Nancy Struby (William), and Rae Otradovsky (Al); her grandchildren Tiffany Merlos, Jonathan Weatherford (Cortney), Amanda Foltz (Scott), and David Otradovsky (Kaylyn); great grandchildren Reiley and Hudson Weatherford.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband Raymond Nordeen Jr.; her siblings Faye Brady, Bobby Brady, Randall Brady, James Brady, and Ray Brady.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Shirley's memory may be made to Choice Care Hospice, El Campo Library, or the First Baptist Church in El Campo.

To mom's longest and best friend, Gloria Petersen, thank you for all the visits and wonderful cornbread, but most of all thank you for loving our mom! All of these people made such a difference in not only our mother's life, but also ours. We do not have enough words to say how grateful we are!
