“ Roxie,
I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your grandmother. I first met Shirley when my Mom was in Garden Villa. When I first saw her there I could not believe what a young woman she was. She was always in her bed looking toward the door smiling and waving as I walked by. Occasionally I would stop in and visit. She never once complained. She just wanted to know how we and Mom were doing. She was such an inspiration, thinking of others. I know how much the two of you loved each other. You took such loving care of her. She fought a long battle here on earth and I believe when our good Lord came to take her home she went straight to heaven and will be spending this Christmas and all to come right by his side. May God bless you and give you strength in knowing how proud she was of you.
