“ Lynette, Paula and all the O'Briant family, you have my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy with the loss of your beloved mother. She always had a smile and was so sweet to me when I'd see her around El Campo. When I would enter the hospital lobby, she was usually sitting at the desk and we had the best visits. I know you will miss her very much and I pray the Lord will grant you His loving comfort. I hope that treasured memories of happier times will console you in the days to come. May perpetual light shine upon her and may she rest in peace. Bless you.
