“ Your mother has always been the very best in our books!!! We loved her so much and will miss her tremendously!!! We will never forget her climbing up all the bleacher rows to watch all those wonderful football games!!! We loved our talks with her before, during and after all those games!!!! Her laughter, love and advise will always be cherished by us!!! She shared my birthday and each year we would call each other to wish the other one happy birthday and catch up on things! I (Laurel) will especially miss that phone call!!!! Always know our love and devotion to you!!! So glad our special lady is once again in the arms of Big Daddy and thrilled to spend eternity with our Lord!!!! Love you alll so much!!! We're always here for you!!! Carl & Laurel

“ So glad we got to reconnect with you and the TX relatives while we lived in Spicewood , Texas and since moving back to Illinois through email. What a great and loving relative, mother and farmer. Your Illinois farming relatives John Daily, my brother, and I were proud to know you. (Our parents are Edmund and Marcella Daily of Arthur, IL who passed in 1995.)
