“ Steve, Becky, Linda, Mario, Frank, Laura, and the family of Mr. Silverio Estrada, our prayers are with you. My husband knew your daddy and always said he was such a kind man, always smiling. I knew him only through visits to your home when bringing something for Becky; he was always so polite. May he rest in peace, and may the perpetual light shine upon him. Treasure your memories of him and your momma. who were always together!

“ My good friend that I enjoyed talking to about the days of old. He gave me many insights to my grandfather that I'm very grateful for. He will sorely be missed by me and may our Gods grace be sufficient for such a kind man. Rest in peace "Silver Dollar". 🙏🕊️

I called him Silver and Silver Dollar for many years. Silver was a very polite and humble man I enjoyed talking to from time to time. He was very knowledgeable of my familie's history. He had a great memory and told me stories about my family. He will be missed by many. Farewell my friend and God bless you!
