“ We were shocked and deeply saddened to learn of the passing of our loved one. Had we know in time, we would have attended the visitation and funeral. My fondest memory of Sybil is the day I came to visit her and Annette in her Ganado home. The hours spent listening to her talk about childhood, family, and growing up...especially the parts she shared about my dad-Jack Morton. To hear her tell it, he was her protector and childhood hero. She will be missed.
