

Timothy Paul Ermis

June 13, 1957 - September 16, 2013

Timothy passed away September 16th, 2013. He was born June 13th, 1957 to the late Jim V. and Effie Ermis, owners of the Harvester Café in El Campo, Texas.

For the past 18 years Timothy worked at the Imperial Palace in Las Vegas, Nevada.

An avid golfer and partner with brother Anthony, they have left many stories and exaggerations still untold. Timothy loved to fish and these stories brought out his rowdy laugh. And competitive to a fault, drawing his friends into deals they couldn't resist and Tim sometimes could not win. He loved his brothers and sister unconditionally. He was caring and gracious. He helped the poor and abused. He had impeccable integrity. No one was a stranger to Tim. He was a gentle, good man. We will miss him until we meet again.

Timothy is survived by sister Katherine and husband Eugene, brother James and wife Jan and brother Mark all from San Antonio, Texas, brother Anthony from Las Vegas, Nevada, brother Tom and wife Ann from Grapevine, Texas, and numerous nephews, nieces and cousins.

A memorial service will be held at 11 am on Saturday, September 28th, 2013 at Triska Funeral Home. A reception will follow at Mikeska's BBQ Banquet Room located at 22730 Hwy 59 in El Campo.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to a charity of your choice. The family is grateful for the many prayers and condolences.

Tribute Wall

RF

“ One time David (my brother), Ermis and I where out at the farm and Ermis was just firing off rounds out of his single shot 22 as fast as he could. Darn if he did not hit and kill a Mud Hen out in the middle of the big lake. Well we told him that that was the biggest duck either one of us had ever seen. Since we did not waste food he had to go get it. Ermis stripped down to his under pants and socks. Never forget him going off in that cold water, as I remember it was cold, and he said something about "underwear man" and off he went. He brought that Mud Hen back, so darn proud of himself and us just congratulating the heck out of him. We took him back to the farm house and we got Daddy's pocket knife and took it to Ermis. He started in on that poor old stinking bird. There he was bird, blood and all when we told him it was a Mud Hen and he could not eat it. He tried to run me down with that bird still in one hand and the knife in the other. We laughed and laughed. As I remember Ermis thought it was funny too after awhile. Boy was funny. I have thought of Timmy often and hope he is at peace.

---

Robert Humphreys - El Campo, TX - Childhood Friend - October 06, 2013 at 12:00 AM

LC

“ Condolences to the families of cousin Tim. May the Lord Jesus Christ grant Tim Ermis eternal rest.

---

Larry Ermis - Bryan, TX - First Cousin - October 01, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RC

“ Deepest Sympathy Bless You All

---

Rose Ermis-Damuth - New Braunfels , TX - First Cousin - September 28, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AC

“ I have dealt dice with Tim for ten years now. His energetic, friendly, carefree attitude always made work much more enjoyable. Tim's Dice crew will continue taking his memory to work with them for a long time. We will also miss taking his $15 at our friendly monthly poker gatherings.

Andy

---

Andy Kohnle - Las Vegas, NV - Co-worker - September 28, 2013 at 12:00 AM

KF

“ We all miss Tim our here in Las Vegas. A good-natured kind soul who was the receipt of countless barbs about his ineptitude @ sports betting lol. We 9piled on him in a good way-it was all in good fun-RIP Timmy and may u see all the Rush concerts your heart desires in heaven-Ken

---

Ken Sablat - North Las Vegas, NV - Co-worker and friend - September 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM

CT

“ Winds Of Change - Scorpions

*I follow the Moskva
Down to Gorky Park
Listening to the wind of change
An August summer night
Soldiers passing by
Listening to the wind of change*

*The world is closing in
Did you ever think
That we could be so close, like brothers
The future's in the air
I can feel it everywhere
Blowing with the wind of change*

*Take me to the magic of the moment
On a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow dream away
In the wind of change*

*Walking down the street
Distant memories
Are buried in the past forever
I follow the Moskva
Down to Gorky Park
Listening to the wind of change*

*Take me to the magic of the moment
On a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow share their dreams
With you and me
Take me to the magic of the moment
On a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow dream away
In the wind of change*

*The wind of change
Blows straight into the face of time
Like a stormwind that will ring the freedom bell
For peace of mind
Let your balalaika sing
What my guitar wants to say*

*Take me to the magic of the moment
On a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow share their dreams
With you and me
Take me to the magic of the moment
On a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow dream away
In the wind of change*

---

Crystal Rios - Dallas, TX - September 24, 2013 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ Dear Katherine and Eugene, Jimmy and the other Ermis Brothers,

Susan and I are sorry to hear of the loss of your brother, Timothy. Words are never adequate. While I did not know Timothy, I do remember his Grandparents Jim and Effie, and Katherine and Jimmy. I remember you all as a very good family.

John and SusanCLQni

---

Johgmail.comn and Susan Lukas - Mountain Home, AR - Family Friend -
September 24, 2013 at 12:00 AM

PN

“ Tim, I miss you. Everytime I think I cannot talk to you here on earth brings tears to my eyes. THANK YOU for every protection you bestowed upon me and all your wisdom. I will miss your infectious laugh and the old days playing golf and basketball. I miss you very much Tim. and I LOVE YOU very very much. Tell Grandma and Grandpa how much we love them. I know that is why you are there. We will meet again one day. I Hope I have amazing things to tell you.

Please watch over my Mom and Dad. We need them very much right now. Tell everyone that embraces you now in heaven that we are trying to make a better place here and need their prayers also. So so so much I never got to tell you my uncle. so so much. I will try to include some in prayers at night so that you may hear. LOVE YOU, Your nephew Pat.

---

Patrick Labay - Austin, TX - Nephew - September 22, 2013 at 12:00 AM

JF

“ Tim was a true and honest friend. I will always remember him for his generosity and his desire to help others. We spent many hrs. golfing together and I am proud to be his friend. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family especially Tony who I know, lost not only a brother but a friend as well. God Bless you Tim I will remember you.

---

Jimmy Rogers - las vegas, NV - friend - September 21, 2013 at 12:00 AM

GF

“ Timmy, it a pleasure knowing you and playing golf with you!! I'm glad Jimmy Rogers introduced us, you were the nicest guy I'll ever know. My heart goes out to your family, for they have lost a wonderful person. See ya on the course someday Timmy Two Gloves!!

---

Gregorio - Las Vegas, NV - Friend - September 21, 2013 at 12:00 AM