“ There was never a day in my life I didn't know Velma. Our dads were always talking cows and horses together. The Ganns were a wonderful part of my life. Velma always could find a bright spot in any situation. She loved her girls and the rest of her family totally. I was blessed to be part of her life thru our church too. She always had an opinion which she shared not caring if you wanted to hear it or not. She was loved by so many and the many souls welcoming her thru the Pearly Gates. The angels sang and rejoiced when she made it to the rewards and glories of Heaven. I loved and appreciated her so much. Love to her family Toodie

*I have to smile when I think of Velma. She was a precious long-time family friend. My daddy ran cattlee with her daddy before I was born. Her girls were the focus of her life and were loved dearly by their mama and daddy. Many souls were there to welcome her into God.s Holy Place..She will be missed.
