“ To the family of Vic:
I was saddened to hear of the passing of Vic. I, (Zan), & Gene Koudelka were college roommates for years. I can very much relate to his love for cooking. Once I cooked fried chicken for the group and it did not get completely done. I have never been chewed out so much as when Vic bit into the chicken. He recooked the chicken and reassigned me to house cleaning and he took over the cooking detail. Vic was always a pleasure to be around and have many of good memories of him during our college days. Again, my prayers will be with the family.
