He served as president on the Danevang Lutheran Church Council and was an organizer of the annual fish fry. Wesley retired after many years as a farmer and rancher.

Wesley enjoyed every aspect of life. When he was working on the farm, frying chicken fried steak or frying fish, he had joy in his heart for the labor at hand. Music was a joy for him and he spent many a Saturday nights spinning his love for a lifetime, Darleen, around the dance floor. His enthusiasm for the game of baseball and his Astros was pure joy for him. The sparkle in his eyes and his wonderful sense of humor will be the gift that he gave us with his whole heart. Whether he was husband, daddy, papa or just friend, he will be greatly missed.
